BARBOUR ON THE STAND.

He Denies All Knowledge of the Murder of Miss Gillespie.

Rising Sun, Ind., May 24.—Myron L. Barbour, smiling, but apparently nervous, took the witness stand at 10:25 Monday morning. He is one of the defendants in the famous case. Mr. Barbour was examined by Col. Thomas Shay, one of the attorneys for the defense. Barbour gave his age as 35 years.

"Did you fire that shot?"

"No."

"Did you encourage any one else to fire that shot?"

"No, sir."

"Do you know who did fire that shot?"

"No, sir."

"You are entirely innocent?"

"Yes, sir."

This was the peroration of the examination of Myron Barbour by Attorney Shay just before noon adjournment, Monday. All during the time that Barbour was on the stand he smiled at the jury and occasionally laughed outright. Once he was cautioned by the court to cease arguing to the jury and to make direct answers to questions.

He denied the conversation with Detective Franklin about the riot gun in the bank and the declaration that he was armed. He denied he said to Franklin that he laid the blame for the murder on Lizzie. He denied the conversation in the alley with Franklin and denied he said: "I can't talk now." He also denied he cried. He said he never met Franklin in the post office, and never said to him, "You don't think I did it, do you?" He denied he said to Franklin that because of his former good character no one would suspect him of the crime.

THE McDONALD TRIAL.

Wife of the Accused Testified as to the Whereabouts of Her Husband.

Bedford, Ind., May 24.—Harvey Freeman said that he had lived in Bedford for two years and had been employed by Lawrence Cosner. On the morning after the murder he, in company with a man named Fisher, and McDonald were in Cosner's scale office. They were talking of the murder when Cosner came in. None of them knew who the murdered girl was. McDonald and Fisher left the office, but the former returned in about three minutes and said some one down the street had told him the victim was Sarah Schafer, a school teacher.

Moses Koplan was called to the stand. He said he was allowed to go home from school early on the morning of the murder. A man named Owens told him the name of the dead girl. He said he met McDonald and Fisher and told them that the woman killed was Miss Schafer, and that McDonald said he was going back to the scale office and tell Cosner. Mrs. McDonald, wife of the prisoner, testified as to the whereabouts of herself, her husband and daughter Jennie, on the afternoon and evening of the murder. She said they were at her mother's home until 4:30 in the afternoon. On their way home, she said, they stopped at several stores. After their arrival home her husband went to Dr. Smith's, returning home for supper, and again going out and returning with groceries. She said she noticed nothing unusual in his manner.

HONOR DECLINED.

Bishop-Elect J. R. Day Tenders His Resignation to Methodist General Conference.

THE ACT ALMOST UNPRECEDENTED

At His Own Request He Was Also Excused From Further Attendance Upon the Sessions.

A Motion That Bishop Day's Resignation Be Accepted Was Adopted Without Discussion and By a Unanimous Vote.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 24.—The Methodist general conference at the opening of its fourth and last week's labor found itself confronted with a duty almost unprecedented in the history of the Methodist church, that of acting upon the resignation of one of its bishops-elect. Rev. James R. Day, chancellor of the Syracuse university, who on last Saturday was chosen as the last of the eight bishops elected by the present conference, resigned his place in the Episcopal board and was excused, at his request, from further attendance upon the conference.

The resignation of Bishop-elect Day, following closely upon his election after a long contest, furnished the sensation of the conference. The intention of Dr. Day to resign was not known to the vast body of delegates, as he had confided in only a few intimate friends in the matter. Bishop Foss, who was the presiding officer at Monday morning's session, gave the first intimation of what was to follow when he asked the conference to hear a prepared statement by Bishop-elect Day. Permission was promptly granted and when Bishop Day arose and walked to the presiding officer's table with a written document in his hand, there was instant attention.

After a brief prefatory statement in which he said he was sure that no man would charge him with acting from motives other than those of an honest, conscientious and God-fearing man, he read a lengthy statement concerning his determination to relinquish the official position to which he had just been elected.

In his address Bishop Day said: "I can not conscientiously say that I believe myself moved by the holy ghost to take upon myself the office and duties of bishop, as our law requires of those who are consecrated to that holy office and ministry, but I do feel myself deeply moved to continue in the work of Christian education."

There was a distinct sensation among the delegates when Dr. Day finished reading his reasons for resignation. Dr. Buckley was recognized and after stating that he had unsuccessfully endeavored in every way possible to induce Bishop-elect Day to abandon his intention to resign, said the conference had a perfect right to nullify its act of election. He cited as a precedent the case of Bishop-elect Joshua Soles, who was chosen by the general conference in 1820, and who resigned before being consecrated. He then moved that Bishop Day's resignation be accepted and the conference adopted the motion without discussion and by a unanimous vote. Upon request of Dr. Day the conference then excused him from further attendance upon the sessions and he will return at once to Syracuse.

The trio were on the way to board a car to Lakeland asylum, when Deputy Jailor Blanford overtook them. He said:

POOLROOM RAIDS.

THE LATTER ARE DOWNHEARTED.

Ordered That Every Suspected Room in Manhattan Borough Be Visited by the Police.

Twenty-Seven Places Were Raided Monday and 14 Persons Taken and Telephone and Telegraph Instruments Confiscated.

New York, May 24.—Twenty-seven places, suspected of being poolrooms, were visited, 14 persons were taken into custody and 94 telephones and two telegraph instruments were confiscated Monday in police raids in New York. Fifteen of the raids were made in the tenderloin precinct.

The other raids were made in various parts of the city. One of the places visited in the lower section of Manhattan, it is said, was a racing exchange and here nine telephones and many racing sheets were confiscated by the police. In another place 20 telephones were found and in a third 11 were taken out.

The tenderloin police visited the place said to be kept by "Honest John" Kelley and found Kelley on the steps.

"You can't get in here unless you have a warrant," said "Honest John." "I've had too many visitors lately and I'm tired of showing people the house." The officers made no effort to enter.

In one place on Broadway, opposite the post office, the police were forced to climb from the roof of a building down to the third floor on a fire escape. They found 21 telephones, but no person inside. The place evidently had been vacated in haste. The raids were the most extensive made in this city in years and covered the district from 42d street to the Battery.

Police Commissioner McAduo continues his crusade against gamblers by ordering every suspected poolroom in Manhattan borough raided. Police details entered no less than 30 places before the raids were finished. It was announced late Monday night that in 45 of the places 16 prisoners had been taken, 120 telephones ripped out and two telegraph instruments confiscated.

The gamblers were down-hearted, the police jubilant, although the result of the raids were not as great as had been expected.

THE Department of Agriculture has issued a report on "The Nation's Farm Surplus," prepared by George K. Holmes, Chief of the division of foreign markets. It gives $4,500,000,000 as a conservative estimate of the value of the farm products of this country not fed to live stock in 1903. The farmers of the United States could feed the world if they were called upon to do it.

A BILL "sneaked" through the Ohio Legislature during the closing hours of the session authorizes the collection of the biographical sketches of every member of the Ohio General Assembly from the first body that convened, nearly 100 years ago, up to the present time. Assistant Clerk John P. Maynard estimates that it will require nearly two years to secure the proper data and arrange it for publication. He expects to visit nearly every county seat in the State. "And who the devil cares for his work after it is completed and $15,000 of the people's money has been blown into it?" pertinently inquires the Georgetown News-Democrat. This is only one of the many jobs put through by the Republicans.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Highly Interesting and Instructive Address at the Anniversary Services at Third Street M. E. Church.

The Epworth League anniversary service at the Third Street M. E. Church Sunday evening proved to be one of the best services of the kind ever held in this church. Mr. Wilson of Newport, the speaker of the evening, delivered a very interesting, instructive and helpful address. He is a most pleasing speaker and had the closest attention of the large audience throughout his address. His advice and suggestions were very practical and the way he endeavored to impress on the young people the necessity of the consecration, concentration and conservation of all their energies for the work of Christ and his church was very convincing. He is thoroughly up-to-date in young people's work and his address will no doubt do much good.

At the close of Mr. Wilson's address Rev. M. A. Banker, the faithful pastor of the church, came forward and in a very impressive manner installed the newly elected officers of the Epworth League. The choir assisted by two violins and a bass violin rendered some splendid music.

It is hoped that this service may be the forerunner of the most successful year's work this chapter has ever done.

AWAITED DEATH WITHOUT FEAR.

Viewed His Approaching End With Calmness and Was Ready For the Summons.

[Lexington Democrat.]

Mr. John C. Fitzgerald, one of the most highly esteemed of Lexington citizens, died at his home, 431 North Limestone, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, after a few days' illness of heart trouble, combined with other diseases, aged seventy-three years.

A widow and five children survive—three daughters, Misses Margaret, Catherine and Josephine Fitzgerald, and two sons, W. A. Fitzgerald, of Chicago, and J. E. Fitzgerald, of this city. The death is the first to occur in the family and they are bowed down with sorrow.

Mr. Fitzgerald was a most devout member of the Catholic church and attended mass every day. He looked upon death with calmness and expressed himself fully prepared for the great change.

Popular Jim Kehoe.
[Paris Democrat.]

Congressman James N. Kehoe was a caller at the Democrat office Wednesday afternoon. He is very enthusiastic over the prospects of the Democracy to win the Presidency this fall. Mr. Kehoe is again a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress from the Maysville district, and unless all signs fail he will win with ease. He has made an excellent Congressman, is popular with the people and a more loyal Democrat never lived.

The A. O. U. W. will meet this evening at Nelson's at 7:30 o'clock. Business of importance. C. B. Wadding, M. W. R. H. Wallace, Recorder.

REDMEN'S POWWOW.

Report of Committee That Visited the Robinson Amusement Company. One of the Best Carnivals on Road.

To the Officers and Members of Wyandotte Tribe No. 3 and the Citizens of Maysville: We the committee sent to Lexington to see the Robinson Amusement Company that plays here for the Red Men's Carnival and Powwow June 13th, beg to report that it was of high-class in every respect. The free attractions are the best that money can procure, which are given during the day and night. The first is Capt. Nick Carter, the intrepid and world-renowned high diver, who actually dives backward from a pedestal towering over 100 feet in the air, turning a back summersault and entering a tank containing but three feet of water.

Another of the free attractions is Miss Orocco the spiral tower ascensionist. This little lady while enclosed in a tightly-sealed metallic globe ascends and descends a spiral tower twenty-eight feet high and while at the top of this tower she fires off a revolver a number of times to prove to her audience that there is no deception in her performance. She also waves two small flags from port holes drilled through the globe. During the night performance her act is enhanced by a splendid pyrotechnic display. These exhibitions are given in full view of the audience.

Mention should also be made of the Keetch family of aerialists. They perform feats which a majority of acrobats are unable to perform much nearer the ground. These exhibitions are given both day and night and are worth going miles to see.

In regard to the shows for which an admission is charged, are the Great London Ghost Show, Trilby, Night and Morning, Foxy Gaudpa, Bohemian Glass-blowers, House of Trouble, Old Plantation, Big Willie, Penny Arcade, English Carousal, Ferris Wheel, the Volcano and others not mentioned here, and we do not hesitate to say that it is one of the best carnivals on the road.

WHO?

Who failed to see the "Summer's Girl's Dream" in our west window last week? It told better than type the beauty of our stock and whoever failed to see it missed an exquisite picture. Perhaps you prefer color to white and will be more interested in some silk-and-cotton Eolienne. Must be an unusually attractive bargain judging by the impossibility women find in passing the counter that holds this charming fabric. Nothing daintier can be imagined. The ground is silk one way and cotton the other and just as pliable and soft as voile. The stripes are as beautiful and in as rich relief as though they were embroidered on the material. The patterns show some plain unfigured colors in champagne, guni metal, American Beauty shades, and self figured green, tan, red and figured lace stripes, satin finished stripes, faille edge stripes in white, and colors on grounds of white, reseda, pink, blue, raspberry and heliotrope.

The Effective Remedy

WASHINGTON, IOWA, April 4, 1903.

I was troubled for over a year with so scanty a flow that it was virtually suppression. A heavy cold superinduced this condition and nothing I could do seemed to help me. The only effective remedy I ever found was Wine of Cardui. Within two weeks I felt the good effects of the medicine and after I had used 13 bottles in all I was as healthy and regular as any woman could wish to be.

My sister used it while expecting to become a mother and found that it made childbirth comparatively easy and after the child was born she found that it helped her to regain her strength.

WINE OF CARDUI

Wine of Cardui cures nine out of every ten cases of the disorders of menstruation. These cures are permanent, whether the trouble is complicated or not.

Wine of Cardui cures the sickness of young girls, relieves the weakness of adults, banishes leucorrhoea, headaches, backaches and nervousness and eases the crisis attendant on the change of life.

Thousands of mothers besides Miss Root's sister have found grateful relief from the pains of childbirth and have had a quick and happy recovery from its use. You cannot afford to suffer when $1.00 bottles are sold by all druggists.

The Bee Hive

WE GIVE GLOBE STAMPS.
THE CHILDREN AND US.

There is no house in the State of Kentucky that is paying more attention to their children's department than we are. We are making a special effort to care for the young folks because we realize that this store will some day be dependent on these children for its support. We can furnish the child with clothes from the minute it's born until its time to depart. We want the children to know us like the famous Castoria. When they are children they cry for MERZ BROS. When they become Misses they cry for MERZ BROS. When they become women they cry for MERZ BROS. It does no child harm to be in close touch with a progressive house like this, it stimulates them on to great ideas and undertakings. DON'T STOP THEM, Maysville has had enough of OLD FOGIES.

It might not be amiss to tell a little story that was overheard a few weeks ago when four little youngsters, ages 7 to 10, were playing on the site that was burnt down, now being erected for us. No. 1 said, "Merz Bros. are going to put up a store here." No. 2 said, "Yes they are for my mother read it in the paper." No. 3 said, "I knew it before it was in the paper," and No. 4, not to be outdone, replied, "I knew it the night it burnt down." Keep your eye on No. 4, he will be one of Maysville's greatest men. We wonder how many people thought of this, besides this boy and us. THIS WEEK we show a NEW LINE OF DRESSES for the 1 to 3 year old child. Something new entirely. See center window for display.

IN PRIVATE HOMES,

Many of Teachers Will Have to be Entertained During the Session of the Kentucky Educational Association.

It being impossible for our hotels to entertain all the teachers of Kentucky who will assemble in our city June 23rd, for a three-days convention, the Committee on Entertainment desires to have a list of all boarding houses and private residences which will accommodate the overflow.

It must be remembered that these pedagogues pay their way at every convention, and when you send in your location, and how many you can room and board, do not forget to name the rate per day you charge.

The committee must know by Friday, May 27th.

Please notify Harry C. Curran, Chairman Entertainment Committee.

PERRY TOLLE MARRIED.

Former Maysville Couple Wedded at Indianapolis.

Mr. Perry Tolle was married at Indianapolis Monday, May 16th, to Miss Anna B. Day, the ceremony taking place at the College Avenue Baptist Church. The happy couple left for Buffalo, N. Y., where the groom is now located with S. H. Knox & Co.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Tolle of this city and is an industrious and most worthy young man. The bride, who is a lovely young lady, also formerly lived in Maysville. Their many friends unite in wishing this popular couple a life of happiness and prosperity.

Musical Treat.

Concert Wednesday evening, May 25th, at the residence of Mrs. William Stockton, West Third street. Admission 35 cents. The following artists will take part: Carl Gantvoort, baritone, teacher in College of Music, and possessor of the best voice in the Queen City; Miss Olive Robertson, pianist, pupil of Albino Gorno, and Miss Florence P. Wadsworth, soprano.

A Native of Mayslick.

Mrs. Hannah Smith, born at Mayslick in 1836, died recently at her home in New Philadelphia, O. Her husband died a few years ago. Mrs. Smith was a sister of Mr. B. F. Clift of Forest avenue and leaves four children.

A RARE TREAT

Was the Musical Entertainment Given Last Evening by the Noted Pianist Brahm Van den Berg.

It takes an artist to make a piano ripple like a harp, sob like a cello, sing like a bird. It requires a piano with a bell like tone, a perfect sounding board with strings like silver to respond to a master touch in order that these voices may be realized. Brahm Van den Berg has this master hand and the piano on which he played last evening has every quality and possibility that a true artist must have in order that he may bring forth the very soul and poetry of a composition.

Through the courtesy of the Smith & Nixon Piano Co. of Cincinnati, the people of Maysville were invited last evening to enjoy a program of exceptional charm and merit.

The full program has heretofore been given and the object of this article is not to cover the numbers individually, but to speak of the three parts collectively as the choicest, most artistic and altogether delightful musical entertainment ever heard in Maysville. Brahm Van den Berg's fingers have the strength of steel, padded with velvet. His touch is never uncertain; clear, never harsh,—the very perfection of tone coloring.

The audience that were the guests last evening of the Cincinnati firm before referred to, have Messrs. John I. Winter & Co. of our city to thank for this unusual opportunity of listening to the best to be found in music, and music on the best piano ever, for which instruments Winter & Co. are agents.

Breakfast food and strawberries.—Calhoun's.

Rev. Homer Carpenter of Lexington Bible College preached at Washington Sunday.

Four rural mail routes have been ordered established at Brooksville June 15, and one at Germantown.

Mr. J. E. Fitzgerald, formerly of this city, is to take a position shortly in the office of the City Auditor of Lexington.

Rev. G. P. Bramel will begin a meeting at Charleston Bottom school house Monday night, June 6th. Everybody invited.

Mr. James Downey, who has been quite ill with stomach trouble, was removed to the Betts Street Hospital, Cincinnati, Sunday.

There will be a called meeting of the Ladies' Mite Society at the M. E. Church this afternoon at 2 o'clock sharp. Every member is urged to be present.

The sketch of the new government building to be erected on the Hunter lot, East Third street, can be seen in the show window of J. James Wood & Son's drug store.

Mr. L. T. Anderson, Jr., sold Friday to Mr. H. C. Harvey, a banker of Huntington, W. Va. a pair of fancy saddle horses, one for himself and one for Mrs. Harvey. Mr. Harvey is a brother of the noted "Coin" Harvey of Chicago.

Prof. G. G. Lindsley, Principal of the Dover public schools, is an applicant for the principalship of the Sixth ward school to succeed Prof. Swift. He taught the school on the Germantown pike in the West End two or three years.

The new M. E. Church, South, at Carlisle, erected at a cost of $18,000, was dedicated Sunday by Rev. E. G. B. Mann, formerly of this city. The sum of $3,250 was contributed to complete the payment of the cost of construction.

Senator Cox of this city, W. G. Dearing of Fleming, Judge Pugh of Lewis, Editor Littlejohn of Carter and Dr. Logan of Greenup are among the Republicans mentioned for Congress. It is said the convention will not be held till September.

The examining trial of Geo. W. Ramey on charge of criminal assault preferred by his twelve-year-old daughter came off in the Police Court Monday, and resulted in Judge Whitaker holding the accused over to the grand jury. In default of $500 bail Ramey was recommitted to jail. His daughter has been placed in the alms house.

A proposition looking to the erection of a new infirmary will probably be submitted to the voters of the county at the next November election. The committee recently appointed by the Fiscal Court to investigate and report as to the need of the new institution, will visit a number of infirmaries and secure the best plans possible before making up their report.

While Mrs. Wm. H. Cox and daughter, who have been touring Europe several months, were in Paris a few days ago they met in one of the beautiful parks of the French metropolis, Rev. R. E. Moss who with members of his party are returning from their trip to Palestine. It is hardly necessary to add that this meeting of Maysvillians so far away from home was one of great pleasure.

D. Hechinger & Co

Last Saturday's business was a repetition of the previous Saturday. Were it not for the kind patience many of our customers exercised we could not have waited on all. There is a strong tie of confidence between this store and its patrons, one than can only exist as the result of years of acquaintance. Season after season we endeavor to do better than in the years before. Our efforts are appreciated.
